

Andrew Harvey is the architect of Sacred Activism. He is a renowned mystical scholar, spiritual teacher writer, poet, Rumi translator and author of more than thirty books. He has spent much of his life studying the world's mystical traditions and has taught at Oxford University, Cornell University, The Californian Institute of Integral Studies and the University of Creation Spirituality. In 1992, he met Father Bede Griffiths in his ashram in south India near where Andrew had been born. It was this meeting that helped him synthesize the whole of his mystical explorations and reconcile eastern with western mysticism.

In 2005, Andrew Harvey delivered his vision of the great crisis confronting us in today's world and its potential solution in what he has termed "Sacred Activism." He believes that the large scale practice of Sacred Activism through "networks of grace" can become an essential force for preserving and healing the planet.
